

For Christmas 2008, Kadéos makes its gift cards shine out

Dressed in gold, silver and light and featuring new retailers, the latest Kadéos Gift Cards will be dazzling this Christmas!

Every year, more and more French people buy gift vouchers as Christmas presents. The prepaid system is highly acclaimed. Last year in France, gift vouchers and cards were ranked third in the Christmas wish list after clothes and money (Deloitte survey November 2007).

At the end of the year, Kadéos Gift Cards are even more strongly present with more retailers and very attractive glimmering designs.

Four new retailers: To offer a more extensive range of gifts, Kadéos Gift Cards are now accepted by Sephora, Courir, Truffaut and Club Med.

These retailers upgrade the exclusive Kadéos retail network (Fnac, Printemps, Conforama, La Redoute, Go Sport, Surcouf...).

The Kadéos Christmas 2008 collection: four traditional golden or silver Christmas symbols will make the four new gift cards shine out.
